

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

A.S. (Mother),
v.
State of Alaska DHSS OCS,
Appellees.

Appellant,

Supreme Court No. S-18152

Order Rejecting Appellant's Opening Brief

Date of Order: 12/27/2021

Trial Court Case No. 3PA-19-00174CN, 3PA-19-00176CN, 3PA-19-00175CN

Appellant's opening brief, filed on 12/13/2021, are returned for correction, based on the following reasons specified by the law clerk who reviewed the brief and excerpt for technical compliance with Appellate Rules 210 and 212.

1. The argument section does contain many citations to the record and to legal authority, but not every assertion is supported by such a citation. For instance, pages 14, 17-18, 22, and most sections comparing the mother's situation with existing case law do not contain citations to the excerpt or record.

2. The brief cover does not include the attorney's firm/organization or their phone number. It also does not include the name of the party, though that is perhaps not important given the brief uses pseudonyms. The brief is numbered from the cover page rather than from the page with the jurisdictional statement

3. The mother breaks confidential on page 24 failing to use pseudonyms for some of the minor children.

The corrected brief with proof of service, is due on or before Monday, 1/3/2022.

Entered under Appellate Rule 102(f).
